NOTICE

- I, the living wo/man, have made a public declaration of my claim of my legal fiction with the Common Law Court.
- I, the living wo/man am the rightful and sole owner of my legal fiction and I, the living wo/man, manage all my legal fiction's affairs.

All previously assumed rights or powers of attorney have been revoked through my public claim of my legal fiction.

I, the living wo/man, hereby give notice, without any ill will or vexation, that my legal fiction does not wish to contract with your corporation.

I'm sure you are aware that only a corporation can contract with another corporation and as such, this notice advises you that no contract exists between my legal fiction corporation and the corporation you represent.

Should you wish to pursue your contract offer, I may be willing to consider your offer as a living wo/man. As only a living wo/man can contract with another living wo/man, I require your private details as follows:

Your given first name/s:
Your family name:
